

Gradual onset of intensity over a wide range of  $T$  is a consequence of angular thermal fluctuations of an order parameter with 3 or more components in 2 spatial dimensions