

A DW with d -form factor predominant is nearly degenerate with d -wave SC near the quantum-critical point for antiferromagnetism in a metal.